

Volume 20 Number 13

September 22, 2009

Announcements

This Week Aphids: Check the graph below. The fall aphid increase has arrived. Fortunately, most potatoes are in the storage or soon to be harvested.

Last Issue: This is the last scheduled issue of Potato Patches this year. We hope that the aphid counts, disease models, irrigation graphs and other information has assisted you to produce a profitable crop. We express our appreciation to Lora for the many hours spent collecting, identifying and reporting this information.
